A. PROJECT ABSTRACT AND DEMONSTRATION OF NEED

Brookings County is seeking this grant to continue to expand diversion services and alternatives to detention in the community and county. In the last year, Brookings County has developed a court approved diversion program that has served 22 youth. The County would like to continue to analyze diversion referral offenses and ensure programs and services to fit the needs of youth and promote successful outcomes. Additionally, Brookings County has developed a conditional release process that has kept three youth from being detained while also ensuring they attend court and did not reoffend. In the next grant year, Brookings County will continue to explore alternatives to detention for youth. These may include, but are not limited to, an evening reporting center programming, court resource homes, and Systems of Care partnerships with Brookings Behavioral Health and Wellness.

Demonstration of Need

Our conditional release program was approved December, 22nd 2020, and our first of three cases was referred on December 30th. Of the three youth that were conditionally released, two scored for a release: one was overrode into secure detention, the other was overrode into shelter care. The third scored for secure detention. At their temporary custody hearings, all youth were conditionally released by Judge Elshere. There were 83 juvenile petitions in Brookings County in 2020, and 57 of those youth were diverted from the formal court process and were successful in their diversion program requirements. This number indicates an incredible growth in youth diversion cases from the previous year 42, but the need for continued diversion support in the community is still high. Of the seven youth that scored for an alternative on the Risk Assessment Instrument (R.A.I.), one was able to be conditionally released with this program starting in December. In the last year, Brookings County has decreased their annual youth average daily population to 80 from 566 in 2019. In addition, juvenile felony petitions decreased by 34% since 2019 which indicate reform efforts are working while also protecting public safety. Brookings County recognizes that there is still a need for non-secure alternative to detention for youth in the community and will be seeking to explore these options in the coming grant year.

B. COMMUNITY READINESS

Brookings County has been a JDAI site for one year. The JDAI collaborative includes the juvenile judge, juvenile prosecutor, sheriff, BDP detention administration, high school administration, local service providers, court services, county commission, and law enforcement. Last year with the Alternatives to Detention Support Grant, we were able to integrate the JDAI program at the Boys & Girls Club of Brookings agency and create a new Youth Diversion Director position. In addition, the Boys & Girls Club of Brookings currently provides diversion and prevention options through Teen Court and other programming.

The Youth Diversion Director position blended well into the Boys & Girls Club of Brookings infrastructure. The mission of the Boys & Girls Club of Brookings is "To inspire and enable all young people, especially those who need us most, to reach their full potential as productive, responsible, and caring citizens." The Club's vision is to be a dynamic, diverse organization that is recognized as champions for youth as well as a leader for positive change in the world." Youth deserve the best we have to offer, and that means opportunities to work with positive mentors and learn from past mistakes. The organization started as a vision of a local police officer who had been shot at by a teen but also recognized the missed opportunities to reach the teen that could have prevented that incident. We recognize a huge role diversion plays in shaping lives for the better.

The Boys & Girls Club of Brookings (BGCB) opened its doors on October 30, 2003 with 101 members, and after almost 15 years the organization has served thousands of youth in Brookings and surrounding areas. The Boys & Girls Club commitment is to reach youth who need us most to create productive, responsible and caring citizens. Following the national Boys & Girls Club transition, our organization for the past years has and will continue to focus heavily on three priority outcomes: academic success, good character/leadership and healthy lifestyles. These priority outcomes correspond well with the goals for expansion of diversion services. The Club serves all youth in need, regardless of background or economic standing.

In 2007, we opened our doors to the facility on Southland Lane and, with membership and daily attendance growing substantially, completed an addition in the fall of 2014. The addition included a licensed, fee-based early childhood education area. In the summer of 2015, we opened a separate stand-alone facility for teens. These spaces allowed for continued growth with the goal to serve more youth, more often, and with more impact. The Youth Diversion Director position will continue to be housed in the Teen Center, located across the street from Brookings Middle School and walking distance from Brookings High School. The facility is very secure with a door access key fob system, security cameras and other security features. There are specific spaces for junior high and high school students, classrooms, a gymnasium, STEM space, music rooms and office space for this position. This facility has space to be a positive gathering space for JDAI committee meetings and youth and family meetings with the Youth Diversion Director.

The Club has a successful history of administering a multitude of evidence-based programs. Recent programs currently offered include Make Vaping History: a healthy life styles program that educates teen youth on the dangers of vaping, Shifting Boundaries: an evidence-based, multi-level prevention program for middle school youth provided lessons on relationships, sexual harassment, and dating violence, OJJDP Mentoring: pairs groups of youth in need of positive adult relationships/guidance with a vetted adult volunteer meeting bi-weekly for a year, and Teen Court Club: teen volunteers meet monthly to learn about the judicial system, fill rolls in Teen Court's "court nights" and help to run the Teen Court program at the Club. We are confident that the Club can make a positive impact and share the evidence of that impact on the youth in Brookings county through the support of this position.

This position will again coordinate the Teen Court Program and we look forward to a continuum of services of the program which is currently facilitated at the Boys & Girls Club Teen Center. The goal of this position was to expand upon the Teen Court diversion program to offer diversion services to all levels of youth entering the system. This goal has been achieved and we look forward to year two in the grant cycle and working with the Brookings County State's Attorney's office.

The Teen Court program sponsored by the Boys & Girls Club has been in existence since 2008. With this program, defendants between the ages of 10 and 18 are given a second chance. Through a referral from the Office of the States Attorney, these students are given a chance to stand in front of a jury of their peers to explain the crime they committed. Each defendant is assigned a student defense attorney, and his or her case is heard. After the case has been heard the teen jury deliberates on a disposition. This disposition is made up of community service, community action points, essays, classes, and also an opportunity to serve as a juror for future sessions. The defendant then has ninety days to complete this disposition.

In 2020, 41 youth were served through Teen Court, indicating the need for expansion of diversion services in the county. Sixteen youth were referred through Brookings County Youth Diversion since its inception in September 2020, with ten referrals in 2021. The cases referred have range from possession of marijuana and alcohol, burglary, juvenile sexting, to simple assault. Since Teen Court's inception in 2008, (especially in the past few years) there has been an increasing need for a case management style of diversion for teens who may not thrive in the teen court environment or in special circumstances are in need of a case management style approach to diversion. This gives the State's Attorney multiple options to divert youth out of the juvenile justice system.

The Boys & Girls Club organization has the knowledge, background and capacity to support juvenile justice services and already has many partnerships with Brookings County as stated above. The County will work closely with the Boys & Girls Club in ensuring all programming, reporting, and reimbursement deadlines are fulfilled.

The school districts in the county have been helpful in the expansion of juvenile diversion services and have shown great support in year one of this grant. School principals and their counseling teams have been dedicated partners and advocates for helping youth succeed and are open to adopting more alternatives to detention.

We see no direct barriers to prevent the proposed project in Brookings County. Like most rural counties, staffing and budgetary restraints exist at the Brookings County Sheriff's office, and funds from this grant will also support continuing services such as shelter care. These restraints have been a barrier to transporting youth to alternatives that are out of County.

Please see the attached letters of support which indicates the stakeholder agencies willingness to continue to support the JDAI strategies within Brookings County.

The total daily population in Brookings County for youth in detention was 63 bed days in 2020 and one thus far in 2021. The average daily population was 0.23 in 2020 and the average length of stay was 7.6 days Brookings County is implementing alternative options for youth to stay out of the juvenile detention center in Sioux Falls, SD, which our County utilizes. These alternatives to detention include LSS Arise shelter care in Sioux Falls, SD, electronic monitoring, and the conditional release program through the Boys & Girls Club of Brookings. These are alternative options for youth who police and intake officers feel do not pose a risk to themselves or the community.

Grant monies will be utilized for staff time to be dedicated specifically to JDAI coordination and implementation. This will include data tracking ability to determine the success of implemented diversion programs and alternatives to detention. This data will be presented to the local JDAI collaborative on a quarterly basis to help guide decision making. The Unified Judicial System intends to support the director position with continued training opportunities such as the national JDAI conference, National Conference on Juvenile Justice, and participation in the Positive Youth Development conference.

C. ALIGNMENT WITH SOUTH DAKOTA JDAI IMPLEMENTATION

The total daily population in Brookings County for youth in detention was 63 bed days in 2020 and one thus far in 2021. The average daily population was 0.23 in 2020 and the average length of stay was 7.6 days. Brookings County has implemented a conditional release process and utilizes the Boys & Girls Club Teen Center as an evening reporting center when appropriate. Having an alternative option for youth will further reduce Brookings County's override up rate. Brookings County has managed to decrease barriers to services such as transportation fees. This ultimately creates a more equitable system for all youth that come into contact with law enforcement.

Brookings County will continue to partner with community advocates and promote cultural responsive programming whenever possible.

The JDAI director is currently tracking all JDAI state required data points. In addition, the Director has created a tracking method for youth on diversion. This data is presented to the local JDAI collaborative on a quarterly basis to help guide decision making. The Unified Judicial System will continue to support this position with training opportunities such as the State JDAI conference, access to JDAI Connect, and a Positive Youth Development training in 2021. We have developed a strong relationship with our State JDAI Coordinator, Annie Brokenleg. She has been an important partner, and has helped us create collaborations with other state JDAI programs, improve our local program, and reach our first year's goals within Brookings County even in the face of the COVID-19 pandemic.

 - 2. Teen Court operations and Brookings County Youth Diversion services

Continuing to dedicate a FTE to these services will enhance juvenile justice services in Brookings County and will provide consistent and reliable solutions for youth. The Youth Diversion Director will promote collaborations between juvenile court officials in Brookings County, probation agencies, the State's Attorney's office, schools, and other youth advocates. This application to the South Dakota

Department of Corrections reflects a request for a second year of funding, with an understanding of an additional year of funding potentially available for the following year.

As an employee of the Boys & Girls Club of Brookings, this position will report Teen Center Director. They will participate in the standard semester evaluation and review process as all other full time Club employees. The will gain important skills related to youth guidance, program and curriculum development, working as a team, and adaptability.

All grant expenses, receipts and financial documentation for the Youth Diversion Director including salary and benefits, travel and per-diem, and equipment and operating expenses will be completed and sent quarterly to the Department of Corrections for reimbursement, and cc'd to the County. Following each claim and reimbursement, the BGCNP Chief Financial Officer will send the approved reimbursement documents to the County Auditor's office.

E. PROJECT PERFORMANCE MEASURES AND EVALUATION

Brookings County and the Boys & Girls Club have had a positive collaboration with law enforcement, the states Attorney's Office, and the local detention center to collect arrest, diversion, and average length of stay and average daily population data. The Boys & Girls Club is already tracking Diversion data and will work in conjunction with the State's Attorney's Office to track recidivism on all diversions. Data will be disaggregated by gender, race, and ethnicity.

Brookings County will continue tracking average length of stay and average daily population and will provide this information to the Boys & Girls Club to disseminate to the JDAI collaborative. The position will have access to up to date RAI data through the unified Judicial System's JRAI data reporting system. In year two, training will continue to be provided to the Juvenile Diversion Director on data collection, analysis, and dissemination by the state JDAI Coordinator and through attending the model JDAI site visit and national JDAI conference.

We are proud of our accomplishments in year one, most notably we created and implemented a case management diversion program that has had 27 youth referred, increased communication and collaboration with the Middle and High School in Brookings, and implemented the option to conditionally release juveniles as an alternative in Brookings County. Having the option to conditionally release juveniles has saved Brookings County $54,656 in bed day costs. They were able to spend 224 days out in the Club getting connected to the community rather than in JDC or shelter care. Our goal for next year will be to work on the length of Brookings County case processing.

F. DESCRIPTION OF PROGRAM GEOGRAPHIC BOUNDARIES

The Youth Diversion Coordinator position will continue to serve youth, families, and community stakeholders in urban and rural Brookings county. To give a better understanding of the county make-up, the 2010 United States Census reported there were 31,966 people and 14,763 households in the county. The county has a total area of 792 square miles with a population average of 40 people per square mile and the county seat is located in Brookings, SD.

G: TARGET POPULATION

The target population is youth under the age of 18 (and their families), who have had contact with the juvenile justice system or who are at risk of having contact with the juvenile justice system.

Target populations for detention reform may also include youth of color, females, youth with school/truancy offenses, domestic assaults on a family member, warrants, and homeless youth.

The goal is to prevent or divert youth involvement in the juvenile justice system and to eliminate or minimize disproportionate minority contact. This project will focus on prevention and intervention for youth engaging in behaviors putting them at risk for justice system involvement. The JDAI collaborations in the county will continue working to create an effective, fair and efficient system that produces positive outcomes for youth, families and communities while protecting public safety.

BROOKINGS COUNTY JUVENILE DETENTION ALTERNATIVES INITIATIVE
(JDAI) COMMITTEE
MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING (MOU)

I. PARTIES

This document constitutes an agreement between the South Dakota Third Judicial Circuit, Brookings County Sheriff's Office, Brookings County States Attorney's Office, Third Judicial Circuit Court Services, Brookings Police Department, Brookings Behavioral Health and Wellness, Lutheran Social Services, Brookings Boys and Girls Club, Brookings County, City of Brookings, Brookings School District, South Dakota Department of Corrections, South Dakota Department of Social Services, and other parties as amended.

II. PURPOSE

This agreement establishes the Brookings County JDAI Committee and is entered into by the above-named agencies to establish a cooperative relationship by applying the eight core strategies (enumerated in paragraph V) of the JDAI in order to:

- Eliminate the inappropriate or unnecessary use of secure detention of juvenile offenders by implementing diversion program options for the youth in Brookings County;
- Minimize re-arrest of juvenile offenders and failure to appear rates pending adjudication;
- Ensure appropriate conditions of confinement in secure facilities for juvenile offenders;
- When necessary, redirect public resources and policies to sustain successful reforms.

III. AUTHORITY

The Brookings County JDAI Committee shall have the authority to facilitate the coordination of inter-agency solutions to achieve the purpose described above. The JDAI Committee may make appropriate resource or policy recommendations to the governing bodies of the agencies represented on the JDAI Committee.

IV. PERIOD OF AGREEMENT AND MODIFICATION/TERMINATION

This MOU will become effective when signed by all parties. The period of the agreement is three years from the original date of signature, as long as funding is approved and continued through the title II formula grant of the South Dakota Department of Corrections.

Amendments to this MOU must be submitted in writing at least 30 days in advance and approved by all agencies represented herein. In the event additional parties are added to the Brookings County JDAI Steering Committee, the new party may be added upon approval by all agencies represented herein.

Intent to terminate participation in this MOU must be submitted in writing at least 90 days in advance of termination to all participating agencies.

V. THE JUVENILE DETENTION ALTERNATIVES INITIATIVE MODEL

The parties agree that the Brookings County JDAI Steering Committee will follow the JDAI model as developed by the Annie E. Casey Foundation. The model's core strategies are as follows:

- Collaboration among juvenile justice agencies, community organizations, and other government agencies;
- The use of data in making policy and case-level decisions;
- Objective instruments to guide detention decisions;
- Operation of a continuum of non-secure detention alternatives;
- Case processing efficiencies to reduce time between arrest and case disposition;
- Improvement of conditions of confinement;
- Safe reductions of special populations (i.e. violations of probation, warrants, and cases awaiting placement); and,
- Racial/ethnic fairness in policy and case-level decision-making.

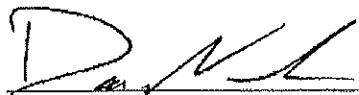

VI. RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE PARTIES

All parties agree to work cooperatively to address the purpose of JDAI as identified above. Members of the Brookings County JDAI Steering Committee agree to attend meetings on a regular basis, make their decisions based on the purposes and processes of the JDAI model, and carry out what is in the best interest of youth that is consistent with public safety. The parties agree to provide access to data that will support the JDAI process, consistent with state and federal confidentiality restrictions. All parties will advocate for the sustainment of JDAI.

VII. COMMITTEE LEADERSHIP AND MEETINGS

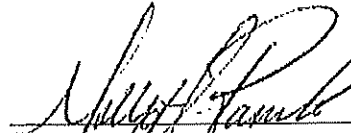

JDAI Co-chairpersons, State's Attorney Dan Nelson, and Chief Court Services Officer Molly Ramlo, were selected by the conveners of the JDAI Committee at the beginning of the JDAI dialogue in Brookings County. Meetings will occur at least quarterly and will be led by at least one or both of the JDAI Co-chairpersons. Co-chairpersons have the authority to conduct the meetings to facilitate discussion and decision-making. The committee will appoint a secretary to keep minutes, which will be agreed upon by the committee. In matters that require a vote, each agency represented on the JDAI Committee shall have one vote. Co-chairpersons have the authority to establish any subcommittees necessary to support the accomplishment of local JDAI implementation. 3rd Judicial Circuit Court Services shall assist the co-chairpersons in coordination of meetings.

RE: JDAI

Dear Ms. Coppersmith:

I am writing to express support for the year two JDAI Initiative in Brookings County. I am the Brookings County Commissioner who has been serving as liaison to the JDAI committee in Brookings. Our commission supports the Alternatives to Juvenile Detention sub-grant application. We obviously support efforts to reduce juvenile detention in our county for budget reasons but most importantly because it is in the best interests of youth, their families, and our community to assist juveniles in being successful.

I look forward to the growth of the program in Brookings County and in being involved in this program for another year. Thank you for your consideration of the Brookings County's year two JDAI application.

Very truly yours,

Lee Ann Pierce
County Commissioner

Dear Ms. Coppersmith,

Please accept this letter of support for the year two JDAI Initiative in Brookings County. This detention alternative has been a valuable resource for families and youth that have been exceedingly difficult to reach. We are eager to continue our work and be part of the Brookings County team helping provide alternatives to incarceration for teens.

By signing this letter, I:

- Identify the importance of providing alternatives for detention in the Brookings community.
- Will continue to provide resources to support these alternatives to the best of my ability.
- Understand that these dollars will positively affect many in the Brookings community, as well as the juveniles that are diverted through the program.
- Understand that my continued roll in the JDAI workgroup is crucial to its success and will support the Boys & Girls Club of the Northern Plains in any way that I can.
- Understand this program will positively influence high-risk juveniles and encourage recidivism rates to decline in Brookings County.
- Will work to reduce unnecessary pre-adjudication incarceration for these specified individuals.
- Will support the community resources necessary to help these individuals enrolled in all diversion programs in Brookings County.
- Will foster the strategies of JDAI in order to better serve the youth in the Brookings community.

Thank you for your consideration of the Brookings County's year two JDAI application.

Sincerely,

The Brookings JDAI work group

APRIL 2020 IMPACT REPORT

HOPE AMIDST COVID-19

The Boys & Girls Club of the Northern Plains has been working hard to be a beacon of hope amidst fear and uncertainty brought to the communities we serve by COVID-19. As the situation develops, we continue to learn more from the families we serve and what they need during this time.

SERVING SUPPER:

The Boys & Girls Club of Brookings is serving over 20 evening meals for Club members each day. Families are able to drive thru & pick up meals or have their meals delivered with zero human contact.

OPEN FOR EMERGENCY RESPONDERS:

Boys & Girls Club of Brookings and Yankton are offering limited services to the children of those medical professionals who have been contacted and registered through their employer. The Club is honored to serve in this way, but will remain closed to the general public and visitors to ensure a safe environment.

VIRTUAL PROGRAMMING:

We have been able to serve over 400 families through Boys & Girls Club of Brookings, Moody County, and Yankton Virtual Programming. Every day, we feature programs in all 3 priority outcomes: Academic Success, Character & Leadership, and Healthy Lifestyles.

MORE CLUB UPDATES:

ANNUAL REPORT 2020

LOOKING TOWARD OUR FUTURE

Thank you friends and supporters of the Boys & Girls Club of the Northern Plains!

Our Clubs had another extremely impactful year, even with all the challenges of 2020. After the pandemic hit, we were quickly able to open our Clubs for first responder families and safely added more youth to each of our Clubs, while complying with CDC guidelines. Within our Brookings, Moody County, and Yankton Clubs, we were also given the opportunity to aid in serving and distributing free meals to youth and their families.

Throughout the year, our staff and board members reached out to our communities and stepped up to help out in immeasurable ways. By starting new programs, altering traditional events, and funding new campaigns, our Club family continues to find ways to support and champion our youth.

We are grateful to provide stability for kids during uncertain times and look forward to being able to serve even more youth in 2021. We are committed to doing

WHATEVER IT TAKES to help out our Club youth, their families, and our communities. We appreciate the ongoing support of the Boys & Girls Club of the Northern Plains. Great Futures Start Here!

POWER UP

Our annual five-week Academic Success Program Power Up served over 230 youth throughout all three communities this past summer. This program is designed to foster lifelong learning and prepare kids for the school year, a much-needed program after early spring school closures.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

Providing to-go breakfast, lunch, and suppers, handing out boxes of groceries, and serving free supper and lunch meals to kids attending the Club are just a handful of creative ways we have been able to serve and distribute food to our youth and communities over the last year.

PAY IT FORWARD

Our Yankton Club has been hosting a quarterly kindness activity called Pay It Forward. Each age group at the Club meets to decide what they want to make and gift to another age group, spends time making it, and then takes time to meet and share their gifts with one another.

WHATEVER IT TAKES

OUR IMPACT BECAUSE OF YOU

VIRTUAL PROGRAMMING

When our physical doors temporarily closed in March, we were quickly able to create and provide virtual programs for Club members through Facebook. Every day we featured programs and activities in all three of our priority outcomes and served over 400 families in the process!

DAY OF INCLUSION

On the first Wednesday of the month, our Moody County Club celebrates a Day of Inclusion. This day is full of activities about inclusion, diversity, and kindness. Youth listen to music from around the world, make crafts together, and learn about what we all have in common, too.

WORKFORCE PROGRAM

Several of our Brookings Teen Members joined the Workforce Program, which is designed to prepare teens for future job experiences by teaching lessons in communication, resume preparation and time management. This fall they worked as junior staff in the 1st-3rd Club.

SOAP FOR SALE

Our Yankton Teen leadership groups are working together to create a soap business! This fall youth researched products, ingredients, pricing, and marketing and made/sold their first batch of cinnamon/orange bar hand soap before the holidays.

ARTS COUNCIL AT THE CLUB

Creative juices have been flowing through the Moody County Club thanks to a virtual partnership with the Brookings Arts Council. Activities in painting, sculpting, weaving, and collaging have all been taught through the virtual art curriculum and has become a popular Club activity!

HOMEWORK HELP

Our Clubs are committed to positively impacting our youth through academic programming activities like our Homework Help programs in Yankton and Moody County and Club Tutors in Brookings. These programs focus on providing help in math, reading, and homework completion and have served 845 members in 2020!

IZAYA'S STORY

Izaya's Boys & Girls Club story began when he was in 6th grade. When Izaya first started attending the Brookings Teen Center, he was very shy, quiet, and timid because he did not know any other members or staff. In school Izaya was also struggling with low self-esteem, attending speech regularly, and was on an IEP for multiple classes. As he began to feel more comfortable at the Club, he and a few friends would often be scolded by Club staff for acting out and using bad language, and he would rarely participate in any programs outside of the gym space.

However, after a few years of regularly attending the Club, you could see his confidence, maturity, and leadership abilities develop. "Izaya five years ago to Izaya today is a completely different person," shared Izaya's mom. Since attending the Club, he has moved out of speech, is down to one IEP class, and goes out of his way to welcome younger teen members to the Club, especially within our gym space. This year Izaya joined our Keystone Club, which is a high school service and leadership program, and received a nomination to be part of Youth of the Year, an Impact Program for longtime Club members to share the influence the Club has had on them. His behavior has been overwhelmingly positive since the start of his sophomore year in high school, and we look forward to continually watch Izaya grow and lead during his time at the Club.

The Boys & Girls Club of Moody County has impacted our family greatly over the last couple of years. The Club has provided us a safe and positive place to send our daughter, Brinley, after school, as well as during the summer months. She absolutely loves the Club, and there are many days that she is upset if we pick her up too early! She enjoys the extra activities the Club provides, including the STEM and Positive Action programs.

This year we have taken advantage of the homework help after school. It has helped tremendously on the nights we have other activities going on, and it has also helped Brinley improve in her reading and spelling. Brinley has loved getting the extra help at the Club so much; we have heard many times how she is so excited to get started on her homework and that she even asks to complete her homework on Fridays!

We would like to extend our gratitude to the Boys & Girls Club of Moody County. Thank you for providing a safe, positive, and educational place for our daughter to attend!

- Rachel Chamblin, Moody County Club Parent

OUR GREAT FUTURE BECAUSE OF YOU

As I sit down to spend just a few minutes of my time putting into words what the Boys & Girls Club of Yankton has done to help my family, I find it hard to know where to start. I have two teenage boys that use the Club regularly, and I could not be happier with that decision. When my children are at the Club, I know they are not only well cared for by the staff but also put into a positive environment where they are loved and have wonderful adult influences. I have seen the self-confidence in my children improve greatly due to the great staff that is always making them feel special. I am not going to say my children never do anything wrong – they are teenagers – but I know that when attitudes or any problems arise, the Club staff have a successful way of talking to them and getting to the problem, at the same time involving me as a parent. I am very grateful not only for the Boys & Girls Club in our community but for the thoughtful staff that is always there for my children.

Yankton Club Parent*

OTHER 2020 HIGHLIGHTS

SAFETY DURING COVID

We were humbled by the opportunity to serve first responder families in our communities near the beginning of the pandemic thanks to the safety guidelines we put into action. Performing daily health screenings, setting up additional sanitizing stations, hourly disinfecting of program areas, and limiting group sizes and contact kept kids safe and able to return to the Club!

HOLIDAY MEALS

In addition to our traditional evening meals, we were able to offer special holiday dinners for Club families. For Thanksgiving, our Yankton Club served over 30 holiday meals to Club youth, and right before Christmas, the Brookings Club handed out 80 to-go meals for families to enjoy at home with loved ones.

VIRTUAL RAFFLE

Our annual raffles all looked a little different as we hosted our first ever Virtual Raffle Event! We made the most of it by inviting local musicians, entertainers, and Club members to be featured in our unique raffle event. Even amidst a pandemic, we were able to reach a new record high of tickets sold among our communities! Thank you!

CLUB NEWS

In 2020 our Clubs made headlines in a lot of new and positive ways! We were able to chat about our Moody County raffle on the Dakota News Now morning show, feature our Brookings food truck program in the Keloland evening news, announce a successful launch of the Matching Endowment Campaign in Yankton, and much, much, more! Thank you for making it all possible!
